

2019 MATE to MASTER License Program

MARITIME INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY AND GRADUATE STUDIES - PACIFIC MARITIME INSTITUTE

The Maritime Institute of Technology and Graduate Studies (MITAGS) and Pacific Maritime Institute (PMI) offer one of the most versatile and cost-effective routes to your STCW Mate to Master (CMM) certificates.

Comprehensive

In addition to the required training, MITAGS-PMI also offers 121 of the 126 tasks/assessments within the various courses to help minimize the inconvenience of trying to obtain these tasks at sea.

Cost Effective

The MITAGS-PMI Program can be completed in sixty (60) days for the current price of $20,125. Our full CMM Program, which covers most of the U.S. Coast Guard requirements, is only twelve (12) weeks in length. If you take all of your CMM courses at MITAGS or PMI, you will receive a 10% discount ($2,013) on the tuition. Additionally, we will provide a Radar Renewal and Flashing light exams at no additional charge (a $428 savings). Note: The tuition rebate will be issued upon successful completion of all 12 weeks of training.

This STCW-2010 compliant training program is designed for the experienced officer in charge of a navigation watch (Second & Third Officers), who are ready to upgrade to the Chief Mate / Master Management level. This complete program offers all the mandatory and optional training and assessment completion to upgrade to the management level of Chief Officer/Mate.

The MITAGS-PMI CMM program is six weeks (30 days) of USCG National Maritime Center (NMC) approved training and simulations that provide you with the knowledge, skills and confidence to assume the duties and responsibilities of a Chief Mate and Master. Where applicable; advanced simulations are incorporated into the courses. MITAGS-PMI has prepared more deck officers to move up to the management level than any school in the United States.
